

June Stool

The perfect lightweight stool that is as effortless as it is adaptable to any space.

Its thin profiled box form is meticulously crafted from solid wood, while a pair of cutouts on the seat top encourages easy moving, perhaps when company is over or simply when a refresh is in need. The top or base can also be used as a space for display. June also comes in counter and bar heights.

The June family of seating emerged out of customer requests for lighter, more portable furniture that retained the studio's ethos in designing pieces of exceptional quality that could stand the test of time.
