

TT Bench

TT's sculptural form is a striking composition of three intersecting lines.

Well-proportioned, substantial legs pierce the low, solid wood seat. Masterful joinery and seamless construction give the seat its floating effect. Intended to be used wherever a beautiful gesture is desired.

Part of the original collection of evergreen pieces designed by Leslie Shapiro Joyal in 1998 and Inspired by a captivating cache of Gianni Versace magazine ads published in the 1980s.
